EDITORIAL POLICY & CONTENT QUALITY

Editorial content is independent from advertising content. Articles are written by independent journalists and columns by invited experts. Any promotional content is labelled "Promotional Feature" or "Sponsored Content".

SPECIAL EDITORIAL REPORTS

Commercial Real Estate Magazine is a general-interest publication focused on commercial real estate and urban development. Readers typically do not know the themes in advance, which stimulates their interest and drives them to eagerly and curiously explore each issue.

However, prior to each issue's publication, our sales team has access to the editorial content and proactively informs occasional advertisers who may be interested in themes tied to their business sector. If you fall into that category, you may share your preferred themes with your advertising advisor so you don't miss potential opportunities to be contacted when a relevant article is planned.

Please also note that the magazine features several specialized recurring columns issue after issue: real estate law, economics, emerging trends, etc. You may request that your ad be placed, when possible, near the column that best aligns with your interests.

Remember that we reach your current and prospective clientele with every issue. In advertising, the most effective strategy remains repetition of your messages and/or your brand image.

Important message: Updated as of December 5, 2025.

Please note that dates or other elements may be adjusted during the year.
